Leroy and Bennie Gilbert were the happy hosts Monday afternoon, August 16th to a large number of their little friends, in honor of their 11th and 8th birthdays. All kinds of merry games were indulged and several contests kept the young folks busy. The tables were tastily decorated with kewpies carrying out a color scheme of yellow and green. After delicious refreshments were served, the birthday candles were lighted and the cakes were cut, the children burned bright sparklers which made the dining room a pleasing scene. Various favors were distributed to the children and all seemed to have had an enjoyable time.
